ENERGY SAVING TIPS FOR KEEPING YOUR HOME COOL WHEN IT'S HOT

It's much cheaper (and uses less energy) to prevent heat build-up in your home than to artificially cool it using air conditioning. To keep your home cool in the heat of summer, close doors and windows when the temperature outside is warmer than your home's interior. Prevent the sun from heating your house by closing curtains or shades - insulated are best.

When the outside temperature has cooled off, open up the house and let the cool air in. (If heat builds up inside your home during the day, use a window fan or box fan to pull hot air out and cool air in.)

Reduce sources of interior heat (and use less energy) by using the microwave or toaster oven instead of the regular oven. Cover pots when cooking and use the fan above the stove to pull hot air out. Turn off your computer, printer, and other office machinery when not in use.

A well-insulated house keeps the day's heat out and low-E windows reduce solar gain in the summer. If you are considering some home improvements this year, check <http://www.energystar.gov/index.cfm?c=tax_credits.tx_index> for tax credit information related to energy efficient windows, doors, and insulation. Tax credits are good until December 31, 2011.

THETFORD DOOR2DOOR WEATHERIZATION OUTREACH AND EXPO

Home weatherization reduces energy use, saves homeowners money, and increases home health, comfort and safety. SERG (Sustainable Energy Resource Group) is organizing a major effort with the Thetford Energy Committee to promote home weatherization in Town.

This September and October, volunteers from organizations, neighborhood groups and individuals throughout the Town will deliver energy-saving information and resources to every home in Thetford. Canvassers will hand out free compact fluorescent light bulbs and coupons for a $150 discount off home assessments and improvements from Efficiency Vermont. They will provide homeowners with lists of contractors available to perform this work and information on financial resources to help pay for it. And they will help homeowners calculate the energy efficiency of their homes.

The Thetford Weatherization Expo, taking place Saturday, November 5th at the Thetford Academy gym, will allow interested homeowners to meet service providers and funders, attend workshops, see demonstrations of weatherization measures being installed, and talk with Thetford residents who have had this work done on their homes.

Later in the fall, we will hold an open house at the home of one or more Thetford residents whose homes have been weatherized in order to learn more about how these services have reduced energy use, saved money and improved the comfort of their homes.

To accomplish this we need the help from folks throughout Thetford. If you want to help others in Thetford use less energy and save money or want to learn more about this effort, please contact Bob Walker at 802-785-4126 or SERG@valley.net.

THETFORD OFFERS RESIDENTS WEATHERIZATION INCENTIVES

Beginning in August, Thetford will offer town homeowners financial incentives to make weatherizing their homes much more affordable through the Thetford Home Weatherization Incentive Program (THWIP).

THWIP will provide incentives matching those from Efficiency Vermont, up to a total of $5000 for home weatherization projects – up to $2,500 from EVT and $2,500 from THWIP – depending on work performed. These combined incentives can pay for up to 75 percent of energy-saving home improvements.

THWIP funds will be reserved on a first-to-qualify basis as long as funds last through Oct. 15, 2011. All work must be completed and paper work submitted to THWIP by Nov. 28, 2011 in order to receive reserved funds.

This does not leave much time. So homeowners, including those who have already had home assessments but have not yet made their home improvements, should contact THWIP as soon as possible to get started. Complete details on the THWIP, including a downloadable application form, can be found on the town website at <http://www.thetfordvermont.us/weatherization-incentives/> or by contacting THWIP Manager, Ellen Blumberg (elblumberg@gmail.com, PO Box 359, Thetford Center, VT 05075, 802-785-9883).
